

IS REALLY THE HIGH STREET OF A SMALL TOWN WITHIN CAMBRIDGE CITY.

Adjudged by The Times in March 2013 as 26th out of ‘The 30 coolest places to live in Britain’, over twenty-five thousand people¹ live in the three Cambridge city wards – Coleridge², Petersfield³ and Romsey⁴ – which surround Mill Road. Our community outnumbers the population of Wisbech⁵, that of March⁶, of Huntingdon⁷, of Ely⁸ and of St Ives⁹.

The Mill Road community of residents and traders are fiercely proud of their mile of independent shops, cafés and restaurants; we view Mill Road as our High Street, our Town Centre.

¹ Total 25,310. Figures from: The Research Group, Cambridgeshire County Council, 2011

² Coleridge 8,620 residents (On the eastern side of the tracks, to the south of Mill Road)

³ Petersfield 7,770 residents (From Parkside Pools to the railway, north and south of Mill Road)

⁴ Romsey 8,920 residents (On the eastern side of the tracks, mainly to the north of Mill Road)

⁵ Wisbech population 23,450 (Source: CambsPopandDwellingStockReport2011.pdf)

⁶ March population 22,610 (Source: CambsPopandDwellingStockReport2011.pdf)

⁷ Huntingdon population 22010 (Source: CambsPopandDwellingStockReport2011.pdf)

⁸ Ely population 19,590 (Source: CambsPopandDwellingStockReport2011.pdf)

⁹ St Ives 16,340 (Source: CambsPopandDwellingStockReport2011.pdf)